

The ECHO ministry's mission is to help keep students connected with their church home. Trying to keep college students connected to the Church while they are away at school is a challenging task which requires love, prayer, team work, and consistency. Care packages and gift cards are sent several times a year along with notes or emails to let students know that we are praying for them and supporting them through the college transition.